

Lindis

The Montreux Lindis Sofa offers a structured, contemporary look with its clean lines and defined edges. Upholstered in your choice of Tasman Leathers, the Lindis features natural markings and an aged character that gives each piece a warm, lived-in appearance. The angular arms and straight profile create a tailored silhouette, while generously cushioned seats and back pillows provide comfortable support. With its combination of characterful leather and refined structure, the Lindis works well in both modern and relaxed interior settings.
