The purpose of this document is to ensure that this financial product is directed to the appropriate class of consumers. It sets out:

- who the product is suitable for,
- who it is not suitable for,
- how it may be distributed, and
- how and when this TMD will be reviewed.

Product Description & Key Attributes – Medium Amount Credit Contract

This is a Medium Amount Credit Contract (MACC), designed to provide access to medium-sized personal loans for planned or essential expenses. The key attributes of our MACC product are:

- Loan amount: $2,001 – $5,000
- Loan term: 3 – 24 months
- Repayments: Weekly, fortnightly, or monthly
- Establishment fee: $400
- Interest rate: Fixed APR 47.6% p.a. (comparison rate varies depending on loan amount and term)
- Fees: No ongoing monthly fee, no early settlement fee
- Security: Can be secured or unsecured and if secured, the loan will be secured over a motor vehicle owned by the consumer which is registerable on the PPSR.
- Application: 100% digital via Jingle's online platform

Intended Use of Funds

This product may be used to cover personal expenses such as:

- Medical or dental procedures
- Car purchase, repairs or upgrades
- Rental bond or relocation costs
- Consolidation of small debts into one loan
- Education or training expenses
- Essential household goods or appliances

Class of Consumers – Suitable

This product is likely to meet the needs, objectives, and financial situation of consumers who:

- Are individuals aged 21 years or older and Australian permanent residents or citizens with legal capacity to borrow
- Are employed with stable, verifiable income
- Have a fixed residential address, mobile number, and email address
- Require a medium-sized loan for personal or essential expenses
- Can provide at least 90 days of relevant bank statements for our lending suitability assessment
- Hold an Australian bank account from which repayments can be direct debited
- Can afford to repay, without hardship, the loan and all fees and charges associated with the loan over the loan term
- Can provide adequate security registerable on the PPSR for secured loans
- Prefer a fully digital application and loan management process

Financial Suitability Criteria

Applicants must:

- Receive regular income into a personal bank account
- Derive no more than 40% of total income from government benefits
- Not be bankrupt
- Meet Jingle's internal credit and affordability assessments
- Demonstrate capacity to meet repayments over the loan term

Class of Consumers – Not Suitable

This product is not suitable for consumers who:

- Are under 21 years old
- Are not Australian permanent residents or citizens
- Do not have legal capacity to borrow
- Are currently unemployed, has been employed for less than 3 months, or are still on probation
- Rely primarily on Centrelink/government benefits
- Are unable or unwilling to provide 90 days' worth of bank statements for the purpose of us undertaking a credit suitability assessment
- Has bank account statements which suggest excessive spending on gambling or alcohol usage
- Are currently in financial hardship, or have a history of repeated hardship requests
- Require ongoing or revolving access to credit (e.g. like a credit card)
- Seek credit for business, investment, or non-personal purposes
- Cannot provide an acceptable security registered in their name that is registerable on the PPSR if requested

- Do not qualify under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (Cth)
- Are currently receiving workers' compensation, WorkCover payments, or any similar income support payments

Assessment Process

To ensure responsible lending, Jingle will:

- Verify income and employment (including employer contact if required)
- Conduct credit checks and review repayment history
- Review expenses and liabilities to assess serviceability
- Complete ID verification and fraud screening
- Contact applicants if clarification is needed
- Provide clear disclosure of contract terms before acceptance
- Offer ongoing support before, during, and after application

Distribution Conditions

This product will only be distributed:

- Through Jingle's digital platform (website or application portal)
- To consumers who complete the application and identity verification
- Following full assessment of suitability and affordability

This product will not be distributed:

- Via brokers or third-party affiliates unless explicitly authorised by Jingle and subject to this TMD
- To consumers who refuse automated repayment arrangements (direct debit)
- Where the consumer has not received this TMD and product summary

The distribution channels and conditions are appropriate because:

- the product has a relatively wide target market; and
- Jingle's approval system has controls in place to flag applicants who may be outside the target market.

Review Period

Initial review

Subject to intervening triggers, this TMD will be formally reviewed 12 months from 19th February 2026

Subsequent periodic review

Subject to intervening triggers, this TMD will be formally reviewed every 12 months from the date of the initial review.

Review Triggers

The following review triggers would reasonably suggest that this TMD may no longer be appropriate:

- Product Changes – a significant change is made to terms, conditions, eligibility, or features.
- There is a change in law or its application or regulatory guidance or action that materially affects the product
- Complaints – complaints in relation to the product increase by 10% or more in any rolling 3-month period.
- Defaults – defaults in relation to the product rise by 15% in any rolling 3-month period

- Defaults (Early Arrears) – new accounts 30+ days in arrears within first 3 months increase by 15% or more compared to baseline.
- Hardship Applications – hardship applications in relation to the product reach 10% or more in any rolling 3-month period.
- Significant Dealings – any significant dealing in relation to the product outside the defined target market is identified.
- Other Systemic Events – any operational issue, portfolio trend, or external event which Jingle considers reasonably suggests the product may no longer be consistent with target market needs.

If a trigger occurs, the Responsible Manager must initiate a review and report findings to the Board within 14 days.

Distributor Reporting Obligations

The following information must be provided to Jingle by distributors who engage in retail product distribution in relation to this product:

- Specific complaints – details of the complaint, including name and contact details or complainant and substance of the complaint
- Complaints generally – number of complains and general feedback relating to the product and its performance
- Significant dealings – date or date range of the significant dealing(s) and description of the significant dealing (e.g., why it is not consistent with the TMD)

Jingle does not currently engage third-party distributors for credit provision. However, where consumer leads are shared, those recipients are treated as distributors under the DDO regime and must:

- Distribute the product only in accordance with this TMD (or applicable TMD)
- Report all complaints (including nil reports) as soon as practicable or within 10 business days, with details of nature and resolution status
- Notify Jingle of any significant dealings outside the target market as soon as practicable or within 10 business days
- Provide monthly complaint volume reports about the number of complaints received in relation to the product
